5th Sunday after Epiphany

Prayer of Preparation (for silent meditation before worship)

Strive to trust God in more and more areas of your life. Anything that tends to make you anxious—a growth opportunity. Instead of running away from these challenges, embrace them eager to gain all the blessings that are hidden in the difficulties. If you believe that God is sovereign over every aspect of your life, it is possible to trust God in all situations. Don't waste energy regretting the way things are or thinking about what might have been. Start at the present moment accepting things exactly as they are and search for God's way. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord God we come before you today knowing that you are a Holy God worthy of all praise, honor, and Glory. Yet we have fallen short of putting you first in our lives. So many things get in the way of our relationship with you; our comfort, wants, expectations, possessions, and looking for the praises of people more than of you. We let the noise and cares of life drown your still small voice. Help us to seek you first above all else. Forgive us and send your Holy Spirit to draw us into your loving presence. Through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.....(silence for personal confession)

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

While we were sinners, Christ died for our forgiveness. When we believe that Jesus died for our sins and confess them, we are forgiven. Know that we are forgiven and be at peace.

Amen. Thanks be to God.

The mission of First Presbyterian Church is to grow in Christ and make Him known. This is based on John 15:5: "Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches, apart from me you can do nothing." The Holy Spirit strengthens us to:

1. Connect to the vine,
2. Grow to maturity,
3. Share the fruit
